THIS WEEK IN RACE
THIS WEEK IN RACE features critical commentary on the language and images of race in American social and political life.

This GUEST on Race
A corollary to THIS WEEK IN RACE and under the auspices of The Project on Race in Political Communication (RaceProject.org), this space is designed to provide a venue for scholars to express their views on the intersection of race, politics and language. We do not edit for content. Posts do not necessarily reflect the views of the directors of the Race Project.
